WORLD HONORS BRITAIN'S GRAND OLD QUEEN.

PASSED THE DAY AT WINDSOR

HER SOTH ANNIVERSARY MADE MEMORABLE.

Pretty Incidents Mark the Demonstration at Royal Castle-Victoria Plants an Oak in the Presence of Members of Her Family.

LONDON, May 34.-Torrents of rain ushered in Queen Victoria's 80th birthday to-day. At Windsor, where a general holiday is being observed, the town was dec-orated with flags and the church bells were rung at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The weather oleared at about 11 o'clock, and a serenade by the Windsor and Eton Amateur Choral Societies was given in the grand quadrangle of Windsor castle. The sun then shone quite brilliantly. The serenade was listened to by the queen and the members of the royal family, including the children of the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Prince and Princess Christian and Princess Henry of Battenburg.

Sis Walter Barratt, the master of the queen's music and private organist to the queen, wearing his official robes, conducted the serenade from the steps of the queen's private entrance to the palace, just below the oak room, where the queen was break fasting. The Eton college volunteer cadets It Was the Feature Yesterday of the marched in to the castle grounds, headed by a band of music, and took up a position in the rear of the choir. Behind the cadets were drawn up the rest of the Eton boys and the Military Knights of Windsor. The mayor and corporation of Windsor, in their full robes of office, and the borough magistrates were also present.

The scene was picturesque. They all sang the national anthem, and then the choir gave the programme, comprising the late Bishop of Wakefield's Jubilee hymn, a four-part song, and two specially written madrigals "To the Queen." Finally the Eton boys gave three lusty cheers in honor of her majesty, and the Duke of Connaught came to one of the windows and thanked se present in behalf of the queen, who, herself, looking to be in excellent health. came forward and bowed repeatedly.

Queen Plants an Oak.

During the afternoon the queen planted an oak sapling on the east lawn of Windsor castle. She drove along Kenneth drive to the spot, and was assisted in the planting by the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. All the members of the royal family witnessed the ceremony.

Her majesty then continued her drive in the direction of Frogmore. The military knights of Windsor present ed an address to the queen at noon in the corridor of the castle and received the warm thanks of her majesty. A pretty incident was the presentation to the queen this morning by each of her grand and great-grandchildren now at the ent ports were dressed for the occasion and the warships were covered with bunting. At Portsmouth there were reviews of the regular troops, volunteers and naval brigades, and the same ceremonies oc-curred at the various arsenals and garrison towers.

A telegram from Simia, the summer capital of British India, records that impressive queen's birthday services there were attended by the viceroy of India, Lord Curzon, of Kedlestone, and the Indian and military officials in full dress. Royal salutes were fired. Lord and leady Curzon will hold a state dinner and levee to-night. Dispatches from the Continent report the printing of eulogistic articles on the queen's reign in the European press.

The birthday banquet given at the Hotel Cecil to-night was attended by many members of the American Society in London. Lord Rossbery, who presided, referred to the American guests as "representing a great commonwealth of states once part of the British empire, but now nearer than any other country except the colonies."

Colonel Taylor, of the society, in responding for the Americans, paid a tribute to the queen and read cablegrams that had been exchanged with the citizens of Tampa, Fig. A telegram from Simia, the summer cap

An interesting feature of the celebration here was the attendance of the boys of the risval and military schools at a matine given by Mr. Herbert Beerbohm Tree's company at Her Majesty's theater, where the entire audience sang the national anthem, to which the queen listened by electrophone at Windsor castle. Her majesty telegraphed an expression of her pleasure. Her majesty is said to have stood the fatigue of the day admirably. All who saw her thought she looked extremely well.
